About Worker Co-operatives

Worker co-operatives are created by people in order to meet their employment needs. The Canadian Worker Co-operative Federation (CWCF) represents the interests of worker co-operatives and promotes, facilitates and supports employee ownership based on co-operative principles.

The Canadian Worker Co-operative Federation

CWCF is a national, bilingual grassroots membership organization of and for worker co-operatives, related types of co-operatives (multi-stakeholder co-ops and worker-shareholder co-ops), and organizations that support the growth and development of worker co-operatives. CWCF was incorporated in 1992.
