

The Centre for the Study of Co-operatives and the Diefenbaker Canada Centre are pleased to announce the opening of

Building Community

Creating Social and Economic Well-Being

Opening 19 May 2010

This exhibition will be on display until October 2010

Venue: Diefenbaker Canada Centre
101 Diefenbaker Place
University of Saskatchewan
Saskatoon

This exhibition of research results focusing on co-operatives and the social economy encourages visitors to imagine what is possible in their communities and illustrates how to make those dreams become a reality.

Suitable for all ages, the exhibit examines the following four interrelated subthemes:

- Building Sustainable Communities
- Building Engaged Communities
- Building Enterprising Communities
- Building Inclusive Communities

The Centre for the Study of Co-operatives and the Diefenbaker Canada Centre are pleased to offer free admission and educational programming for this exhibit. For information regarding guided tours or to book your class's grade-appropriate, curriculum-based program, please contact us at (306) 966-8384 or dief.centre@usask.ca

Open 9:30 – 4:30 Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday
9:30 – 8:00 Thursday
12:00 – 4:30 Weekends and Holidays